

Connecting for Solutions:

The Power of Supportive Adults for Youth

2024 Social Connectedness of Youth Convenings

Wednesday, March 20
12 - 1:15 pm
Virtual

What you can expect
in this convening:

- Learn why it is important for youth to have supportive adults in their lives.
- Learn from others – in small group discussions you'll hear from others what they are seeing in their communities regarding youth and supportive adults.
- Meet others and network – connect with others and share best practices. Come ready to share!

We want to inspire local work on social connectedness of youth.

This convening is open to anyone in Wisconsin concerned about children's mental health and providing supportive adults to youth.

Feel free to share this invitation.
