

PARTNER Reflections

In recognition of the Wisconsin Office of Children's Mental Health's (OCMH) 10th Anniversary, OCMH partners offer reflections of the past 10 years and OCMH's contributions to children's mental health in Wisconsin.

"I am optimistic for the future, because of the increased visibility of youth mental health. Everyone is talking about mental health, parents want more school mental health, and schools are resisting less, for example, three schools in Southern Wisconsin that didn't want therapists in the school are now open to having them."

► PABLO NAVARRO, NAVARRO PROFESSIONAL COUNSELING SERVICES

"The data work in the Fact Sheets have been a key communication piece that continues to keep children's mental health front and center. They have been crafted with practical strategies from interpersonal to systemic levels, and that approach has maintained an awareness of the challenges and questions before us."
