

Trauma-Informed Care Policy Workshop

Location: WI Department of Administration
101 E. Wilson, Room 136 (St. Croix Room)
Madison, WI
May 24, 2017
1-3 PM

Workshop Topic: Meaningful Consumer Involvement Part 2: Why is including the voice of lived experience an essential part of trauma-informed care?

At the end of this workshop, attendees will be able to:

1. State three reasons why consumer involvement is a key tenet of trauma-informed care.
2. Identify essential guidelines around including consumer involvement in their organization, and pick one guideline to implement within their organization.

Agenda

5 min	Welcome and Feedback
10 min	Why Consumer Involvement?
60 min	Panel of Best Practices & Learned Experiences Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Amy Selenske and Ashley Jansen from Reach Dane • Ann Hameister from Children's Hospital of Wisconsin- Fox Valley Family Advocacy Committee • Bryn Martyna from the WI Department of Children and Families • Joannette Robertson from the WI Department of Health Services • Tia Words Jones from Children's Hospital of Wisconsin Youth Advisory Group 	Each panelist will discuss the following items: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. A description of their organization and who they serve. 2. How they include consumer voice meaningfully in their organization. 3. Why consumers are essential to their trauma-informed efforts.
30 min	Small Group Work	Plan your organization's next steps.
10 min	Large Group Report-Out	What were your experiences with this activity? Share your action plan.
5 min	Future Steps	Learn about upcoming workshops.